

City of Hopkinton
Associates

February 15, 1994

You are invited -

To view the Concept Plan for Beryl Gaiman Park. This draft design is based on the integration of:

- Hopkinton's history of park development
- projected population growth
- outdoor activity patterns
- site opportunities and constraints
- workshops and focus groups with staff, youth, and the community

Please find enclosed an Executive Summary of our findings and progress to date. The Concept Design is now drafted and we welcome your feedback. An Open House to view, query and comment on the Concept Design will be held:

Thursday, February 25, 4:30 - 8:30 pm
San Franklin Place, Rm. 1A, 101 Centrepointe Dr.

Anna Robinson and Steve Gundersen, the Planning Director and landscape architect respectively, who researched and developed the park program. The community will be available to respond to your inquiries.
